Every year the affiliate will submit a brief report, which should be a summary of the salient highlights and/or goals accomplished that reflect the nine essentials. This summary should include, but is not limited to, the items listed below.

1. Provide the organization's mission and vision statement.
2. Describe how your organization continues to assure there is a balance between P-12 and higher education members.
3. Provide a summary of activities (conferences, workshops, meetings, research) that have taken place during the past year.
4. Provide a current list of officers.
5. Provide your website address (if applicable).
